Senior award ensembles application pack 2023

Application (Stage 1) deadline: Tuesday 2 May 2023
Auditions (Stage 2): Saturday 10 & Sunday 11 June 2023

Thank you very much for your interest in applying for a Hattori Foundation senior award. The Trustees of the Hattori Foundation invite ensembles whose talents and achievements give promise of an international career to apply for financial assistance between 1 September 2023 and 31 August 2024.

Before filling out the application form please make sure you read through the following information.

SENIOR AWARDS:

Awards are available for:

- ✓ financial assistance relating to intensive study with an international chamber music teacher in the UK or abroad
- ✓ financial assistance to participate in a chamber music course
- ✓ travelling or living expenses in connection with entering international competitions
- ✓ financial assistance (sponsorship) in connection with concert performances

Awards are not available for:

- ✗ the repair or purchase of instruments
- ✗ tuition fees for full-time study
- ✗ expenses incurred outside the award year

Living allowance awards are paid in 10 monthly instalments from September to June. Project-based awards are generally paid on the provision of invoices/receipts. Senior Awards are granted up to a maximum of £5,000.

GENERAL CRITERIA:

- ⤴ Ensembles should have worked together for a minimum of 12 months and have performed in public prior to the auditions.
- ⤴ They must provide evidence of public recital performances within the preceding 2 years together with projected plans for the following 12 months.
- ⤴ All applicants must be British citizens, Foreign Nationals normally resident in the UK, or Foreign Nationals who are studying full-time in the UK.
- ⤴ The average age for members of an ensemble should not exceed 27 years of age on 2 May 2023.
- ⤴ Applications must be supported by two referees who should be professional musicians.

APPLICATION / AUDITIONS PROCESS:

Stage 1 – APPLICATION (by 2 May 2023)

Applicants should submit the following items to the Hattori Foundation via email admin@hattorifoundation.org.uk or post 7 Exton Street, London SE1 8UE

- Completed application form, including all information requested
- A recording (video, or audio only),
 - minimum 30 minutes in duration
 - including at least 3 contrasting works from different periods.
The recording(s) should include at least one work composed before 1850 (including transcriptions of those works) - exceptions apply to instruments for which no ensemble works were composed before 1850, e.g. trombone, accordion.
 - recordings must have been made within 6 months of the application deadline. The recordings may be drawn from different performance dates.
 - may be submitted by links to online recordings (a created YouTube playlist is ideal), or by CD/DVD.
 - Please don't apply filters to your sound to make it sound like it comes from a hall if it's recorded in your home. The Trustees will be able to assess your musicianship and skill from the 'raw' recordings.
- Two references (in the format provided) supporting your application
 - one from your current teacher, and
 - one from a prominent musician.References should be submitted directly by your referee by email or post.

The applications will be reviewed by the Music Advisor and Trustees.

We aim to issue invitations to the Stage 2 auditions by 19 May 2023.
ALL applicants will be advised whether or not they have progressed to Stage 2.

Stage 2 – AUDITIONS (10/11 June 2023)

Auditions will take place on Saturday 10 and Sunday 11 June 2023 in Waterloo, London. This stage will be in-person only, unless exceptional circumstances arise.

Applicants reaching this stage will be invited to present a 20-minute recital programme of contrasting works from multiple periods (e.g. baroque, classical, romantic, 20th Century, 21st Century). This programme may include works from the Stage 1 recordings.

The recital will be followed by an interview with the Trustees, the Music Advisor and an independent adjudicator, if appropriate.

The nature and amount of the award will be determined by the Trustees after assessing talent, musicality and the suitability of the assistance for which the applicant has applied.

All applicants will be notified in writing as to the outcome of their audition during the following week. If successful, award payments will commence from September 2023.

Applicants must not contact any trustee regarding their application or performance. Any such approach would disallow their application.
